

Roberts Dairy Employees Federal Credit Union

Quarter 3- July
2020

Annual Meeting Update

We are planning to hold the annual meeting the end of September. We will notify of an exact day once we are able to determine one.

The annual meeting may turn into mail in ballots based on guidelines set in place by the state of Nebraska for gatherings. If we determine the meeting will be cancelled we will refund all tickets that have been purchased at that time.

Thank you for your patience as we try and address this matter as quickly as possible.

New Services Offered

Incoming and Outgoing ACH transfers: Log into your online banking with us and send a transfer to another financial institution using routing and account number. You may also transfer funds into your Credit Union account from another institution using the routing and account number. This process does take 2-3 business days to post to the receiving account. This service is FREE to you.

Deposits/Payments by Phone: Using a card we now accept deposits and payments by phone. A $5.00 fee per transaction is charged. This takes 1 business day to post to your credit union account.

E-statements: Go green and enroll in electronic statements today! E-statements are the way to receive your statement quicker and without the mail hassle. A notification will be sent to your email when the statements are ready to view online after you enroll.

Loans we offer!

The Credit Union offers a variety of loan types for you. Talk to us about refinancing your current auto loan or consolidating your current outstanding debt. Autos, motorcycles, campers, boats, personal loans, consolidation loans, share secured, etc. We are happy to assist with your loan needs. Call Sarah or Emily today!
